SCJ Alliance Welcomes Keith Jankovsky to Our Seattle Studio

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 21, 2017 – SCJ Alliance welcomes Landscape Architect Keith Jankovsky to SCJ Studio, our Seattle landscape architecture team. The boutique studio specializes in residential gardens and estates, urban design, parks and public spaces, recreation and restoration projects.

Keith has 14 years of experience in project theming, conceptual design, design development, construction and permit documentation, municipal interface, and construction administration.

After graduating from Arizona State University in 2003, he participated in a wide variety of project types throughout Arizona and Nevada, including large-scale public parks, multifamily residences and single family residential developments. He also has experience with resort hotels, senior living facilities, private parks and residences and master planned communities.

“Keith’s experience has already proven extremely valuable in our practice, and he hasn’t complained too much about the weather yet!” quipped Mark Garff, principal landscape architect at SCJ. Keith is an avid outdoorsman with a passion for both road cycling and mountain biking.

SCJ is a multidisciplinary consulting firm specializing in civil engineering, transportation planning and design, landscape architecture, environmental and urban planning, and public outreach. In addition to the landscape architecture studio in Ballard, SCJ has locations in Lacey, Centralia, Vancouver, downtown Seattle, and Wenatchee.

The privately-held, majority women-owned firm has been nationally recognized multiple times for growth, award-winning projects, and as a great place to work.
